1. [REDACTED] Comment. These supplementary shipments bring up the number of shipments in June from 1,045 to 1,574 carloads which include 209 carloads of pit coal from Oelsnitz and Neuoelsnitz as compared with 253 carloads of hard coal in May 1952. Thus, military supply traffic, without the coal shipments, increased by 20 percent in June as compared with that in May. However, supply traffic remained normal.
